How I wish, how I wish you were here.
We're just two lost souls swimming in a fish bowl,
Year after year, running over the same old ground.
What have we found? The same old fears.
Wish you were here

— Roger Waters

Something must be wrong with me and my brain —
If I'm so patently unrewarding
But my dreams are for dreaming and best left that way —
And my zero to your power of ten equals
Nothing at all

— Ian Anderson

My most memorable "bite"

Just open your eyes
And realize
The way it's always been Just open your mind
And you will find
The way it's always been
Just open your heart
And that's a start

— Graeme Edge

Breathe, breathe in the air,
Don't be afraid to care
Leave but don't leave me,
Look around and choose your own ground
For long you live and high you fly
And smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry
And all you touch and all you see Is all your life will ever be.

— Roger Waters

Jeff Vincent

Two years of the 1960s 1960

You thought that you knew where I was and when
But it looks like you've been fooling you again
You thought that you'd got me all staked out
But baby looks like I've been breaking out
I'm a dark horse, running on a dark race course
I'm a blue moon
Since I stepped out of the womb, I've been a cool jerk Looking for the source
I'm a dark horse

I've had dreams enough for one,
And I've got love enough for three.
I have my hopes to comfort me;
I have my new horizons out to sea.
But I'm never gonna lose your precious gift;
It will always be that way
And I know I'm gonna find my own peace of mind Someday, someday.

— Justin Hayward

— George Harrison

he's a perfect stranger like a cross of himself and a fox he's a feeling arranger and a changer of the way he talks he's the unforeseen danger, the keeper of the key to the locks know when you see him, nothing can free him, step aside, open wide, it's the loner

Tim Gilbert

Elizabeth Foster

Smoothly woven strands of pewter unite to form one small Duck, trapped in its silver home, only alive at night
He has no eyes, nose or liver:
the fate of this Duck is yet undetermined
He lives in eternal night; never seen the sun can't feel the rain nor the wind that howls
He won't ever swim nor fly through the sky It's smooth as silk, this wild critter whose instincts cannot function It'll never eat weeds or frogs or fish, its bill will never open
It appears so soft in a god-like fashion;
so thick and rich, I love with a passion Its eyes have not seen Death nor his ears heard a gunshot, but it lives in its pewter home never knowing the sun, sand, wind or Hills of Freedom
I am speaking now of where I was born where I belong;
the sun, the wind, and the snow

THE QUITTER

When you're lost in the Wild, and you're scared as a child,
And Death looks you bang in the eye
And you're sore as a boil, it's according to Hoyle
To cock your revolver and . . . die
But the Code of a Man says: "Fight all you can," and self-dissolution is barred
In hunger and woe, or, it's easy to blow
It's the hell-served-for breakfast that's hard

"You're sick of the game!" Well, now, that's a shame You're young and you're brave and you're bright
"You've had a raw deal!" I know — but don't squeal Buck up, do your damndest, and fight
It's the plugging away that will win you the day,
So don't be a piker, old pard!
Just draw on your grit; it's so easy to quit
It's the keeping-your-chin-up that's hard

It's easy to cry that you're beaten — and die,
It's easy to crawfish and crawl;
But to fight and to fight when hope's out of sight —
Why, that's the best game of them all!
And though you come out of each gruelling bout
All broken and beaten and scarred
Just have one more try — it's dead easy to die,
It's the keeping-on-living that's hard

Yeah I've had my share of broken dreams
And more than a couple of falls
And in chasin' what I thought were moonbeams
I have run into a couple of walls

But in lookin' back at the places I've been
And the changes that I've left behind
I just look at myself to find
I've learned the hard way everytime

Cause I've had my share of good intentions
And I've had my share of mistakes
And I've learned at times it's best to bend Cause if you don't well those are the breaks

Should have listened to all the things I was told
But I was young and too proud at the time
Now I look at myself to find
I've learned the hard time everytime

But in looking back at the lessons I've learned
And the mountains I wanted to climb
I just look at myself to find
I've learned the hard way everytime

But in lookin' back at the faces I've been I would sure be the first one to say
When I look at myself today
I wouldn't have done it any other way

Jim Croce (1943-1973)

Brad Wade

Say a word out of line and you find that the friends you had are gone — Forever . . . forever
So many faces in and out of my life
Some will last, some will just be now and then Life is a series of hellos and goodbyes —
I'm afraid it's time for goodbye again

Home is just another word for you

Merci bien, Charlie et Madame!
l'en ai fait mes amies, ils sont maintenant unique au monde

Louise Ninneman

For we are always what our situations hand us,
It's either sadness or euphoria

. . . But will you always stay Someone else's dream of who you are Do what's good for you or You're not good for anybody

So before we end (and then begin) — We'll drink a toast to how it's been A few more hours to be complete,
A few more times that I can say
I've loved these days

Sei Deine Seele
Dichter
Der erste Hauch
Bewegese!

Und ewig müssen
Die Saiten schwingen
Im Atem des Weltwehs
Denn das Weltweh
Ist die Wurzel
Der Himmelssehnsucht

Auch steht Deiner Feder

Im Weh der Erde
Über ihren Scheitel krönt
Himmelslicht

If you stop and think of it,
It's real work to get along
What I said you should have done
And what you think of what I'm doing

Someone I Touched

Together we sing with the wind climbing up a tree. Never thinking to drop; the glory and the story forever to see. If there be no tomorrow, forever shall we go into time and be never alone again if ever

Paint a pretty smile each day
Loving is a blessing
Never let it fade away
It's all about love
Build yourself a true romance
With the beauty that surrounds you You deserve just one more chance my dear, my dear
Let the light shine all through your mind
Feel your heart a glow
Take the time, make up your mind
It's all about love

I am a child in these hills
 Looking for water
 Looking for life
 Who will show me the river and ask me my name
 Is there nobody here who will do that?
 Well I have come to these hills
 I will come to the river
 As I chose to be gone
 From the house of my father
 I am a child

 Mr. Millhon
 Paul
 Your work has been appreciated

I'm going to be a happy idiot and struggle for the legal tender
 Where the ads take aim and lay their claim
 To the heart and the soul of the spender
 And believe in whatever may lie
 In those things that money can buy
 Thought that true love could have been a contender
 Are you there?
 Say a prayer for the pretender
 Who started out so young and strong only to surrender

| Browne

No sooner had I hit the streets when I met the fools that a young fool meets all in search of truth, bond and glory and listening to our own heart beats we stood around the drum though it's fainter now the older I become Living your life day after day soon all your plans and changes either fail or fade away leaving so much still left to say

| Browne

There is a place that's lonely
(for some) Some keys
Why — are new peaches so green and hard,
How — does enough pressure cause instability
What — does "money" mean?
'Where is this place?
(“Where” is synonymous with “when Do you understand?)
Well once a man I know went there during a stay in the mountains But I've been there just looking into his eyes so “I want to go there now.”
No-one wants to and you'll get there (illegally) watch naked stars from a cold hillside on a wintry summer night “So what? Many people do that. Even I have.”
Then you don't want to get there or you'd be there now
It's lonely, you see
Wait for someone to praise

After the Goldrush

Well I dreamed I saw the knights in armour coming Saying something about a queen
There were peasants singing and dreamers dreaming
And the archer split the tree
There was a fanfare blowing
To the sun
That was floating on the breeze
Look at mother nature on the run
In the nineteen seventies

I was lying in a burned out basement
With the full moon in my eyes
I was hoping for replacement
When the sun burst thru the sky.
There was a band playing in my head
And I felt like getting high
I was thinking about what a friend had said
I was hoping it was a lie
Look at mother nature on the seen
In the nineteen seventies

Well I dreamed I saw the silver spaceship lying In the yellow haze of the sun
There were children crying and colors flying
All around the chosen ones
All in a dream. All in a dream
The loading had begun
They were flying Mother Nature's Silver seed to a new home in the sun
Look at mother nature on the run
In the nineteen seventies

"When I use a word," Humpty Dumpty said, in rather a scornful tone, "it means just what I choose it to mean — neither more nor less."

"The question is," said Alice, "whether you can make words mean so many different things."

"The question is," said Humpty Dumpty, "which is to be master that's all."

The 23rd Annual Maumee Valley Tournament saw the Mohawk's take first place for the second straight year. After a disappointing regular season, which left the team with a record of eight wins and six losses, the Mohawks were a distinct underdog going into the Tournament. However, the Mohawk's easily defeated Sewickley Academy on Friday night, 60-34. Park-Tudor, with a record of 20-4, advanced to the finals after defeating Evansville Day School. On Saturday the Maumee Valley team showed tremendous determination, desire and hustle in an almost unbelievable 49-46 victory over Park-Tudor; the win was truly one of the most remarkable performances in MV history.

And Best Wishes
To The Senior Class

MID-STATES TERMINALS, INC.

WE'VE GOT A GREAT GIFT FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL GRAD.

AND THAT'S NO ORDINARY BANK STATEMENT.

It's a special gift to help you get your future off to a good start. You get the "18" Almanac. Created especially for graduating seniors, this hand-book is an informative introduction to what lies ahead of you. It contains articles about working, job opportunities, starting salaries, college and much more. The book is free—just for the asking.

You can also receive a Toledo Trust checking account, if you wish. It's yours, free of any service charge, for one year. There's no minimum balance or savings account required, no strings attached.

And to go with your checking account, your first fifty checks are free. We'll even personalize them with your name and address imprinted on each one.

Finally, we'd like to discuss helping you set up your credit program for your future. Establishing good credit is very important in starting out on your own. Come see us and we'll discuss all the details with you.

Visit any of our convenient branch offices and ask about your graduation gift. It's out of the ordinary because that's the kind of bank we are. Come see us today.

successful?

It was people then...

People made it go back in the early years of LOF when these young men came from countries with strange sounding names to earn their mark in the new world.

Today it is still people...

Today the sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters, still make private enterprise go in America.

Looking toward the future . . .

As supplies of natural gas and oil continue to grow scarce, electricity will play an even larger role in meeting the expanding energy needs of our society. That's why Toledo Edison is developing new sources of energy, such as nuclear power, and planning ahead for the power needs of 1990 and beyond.

We're determined to meet this challenge and provide the best possible electric service for your generation and others that follow

A vertical rectangular advertisement for Dominic's Italian Restaurant & Lounge. The top part features the restaurant's name in a stylized font, with 'Dominic's' in a larger, more decorative script. Below the name is an illustration of a gondola with a gondolier and passengers, set against a backdrop of a city skyline. The text below the illustration lists the restaurant's specialties: 'SPECIALIZING IN PIZZA', 'SPAGHETTI • RAVIOLI', 'LASAGNA • STEAKS', and 'BEER • WINE • COCKTAILS'. It also mentions 'Featuring Our Famous Smorgasbord'. At the bottom, the phone numbers '381-8822 or 381-0131' and the address '2121 S REYNOLDS RD' are provided, along with the note 'Across from Southwyck Mall'. The entire advertisement is framed by a decorative border with classical architectural elements like columns and an arch.
